

By allowing media companies to own TV and newspapers you would water down the news. We would be less likely to get "real" news. Do not repeal the rules that prohibit media companies from owning newspapers.